

SINCE I FELL

Lyrics and Music © 1999 by Bill Roper

C F C
Mama warned me when a girl had scorned me, don't believe in love at first sight.
C F G
If I let you, since they day I met you, you might discover maybe I might.
F C E Am
When you told me that you want to hold me, I knew nobody else there would do.
F C F C
So I'm taking the chance. I'm so happy I dance
F G C
Since the day that I fell over you.

(Chorus)

F C F C
Since I fell over you, I've been out of my mind
F C G
And if anyone looks, well, I know they will find
F C F C
That I'm head over heel from the way that I feel
F C E
There's no need to appeal 'cause the feeling is real.
F G
That's the way that I've been
Dm7 G C
Since the day that I fell over you.

Tripping, falling, there's no hope of stalling emotions that are too strong to hide.
Feel it, gauge it, there's no way to cage it, and I don't want to keep it inside.
Never missed you 'till the day I kissed you, and now I hope you're missing me too.
'Cause your kiss is the key that has set my heart free
Since the day that I fell over you.

(Chorus)

Chance romance has got me in a trance, it's left me praying you're gonna stay.
My eye spies it, knows you can't disguise it, and now I know you feel the same way.
The spirit's willin' and I find it's thrillin', relearning things I thought that I knew.
'Cause it's not like before. There's a new world in store
Since the day that I fell over you.

(Chorus)

F G
That's the way that I've been
Dm7 G C
Since the day that I fell over you.
F G
That's the way that I've been
Dm7 G C
Since the day that I fell over you.

I write most of my music with my guitar in hand. This song was written - or at least started - in the car on the way down to visit my father, when I desperately needed to distract myself from the situation at hand. It worked.
