Third Planet From the Sun

(Chorus)

G FaddG

Third planet from the sun.

CaddG

It's the place you've got to go if you would have some fun.

G FaddG

Third planet from the sun.

CaddG

Everybody knows that it is number one.

G FaddG CaddG

Third planet, third planet, third planet,

D G FaddG CaddG D

Third planet from the sun.

G Em7

If you've looking for a tourist spot,

CaddD I

A place to spend some time that isn't much too hot,

G Em7

Mercury and Venus are too far inside,

CaddD D

Got the sort of weather that will tan your hide.

CaddG D G Em7

If you want to find a place that's cool enough to spend the night

A FaddG D

And sit and camp out on the beach until the sun's first light.

(You need the)

Out past the belt, the worlds are giant sized,
Got a lot of views that will delight your eyes.
If you're looking for a world with rings
Or a plethora of moons and other icy things,
Those great gas giants got the pull to crush you flat,
Not like the gravity in my favorite habitat.
(Back at the)

Too far to head out to the stars,
So I think we better take a better look at Mars.
Needs more water and needs more air.
Makes you start to wonder what we're doing there.
If you want a place that's fit to live, we'll have to terraform it.
Our outdoor concert's on tonight, there's one place to perform it.
(That's on the)

(Bridge)

CaddG D G Em7

I want a place with air and I want a place with water.

A place where we can go with all our sons and all our daughters.

G

Em7

CaddG D G Em7

Walk barefoot in the grass where we do not have to die

D

And look up at the heavens to a clear blue sky.

(That's on the)

(Chorus twice)

Third planet, third planet, third planet,

Third planet from the sun.

Third planet, third planet, third planet,

Third planet from the sun.
